Notes

This publication includes some statistics back to the 1947-48 season, which included field goals, free throws, fouls and points. Archived scores are included from old publications back to the beginning of men's basketball in 1904-05.

Rebounding data is available from the 1954-55 season, with offensive rebounds being broken out starting in 1986-87.

The NCAA made freshmen eligible in 1972-73, so players prior to that time would have played for only three seasons. For longtime Maryland Basketball fans, think of the cutoff like this - Tom McMillen played three seasons, but John Lucas played four.

Other than an experimental season the ACC had with a 3-point line at 17 feet, 9 inches in 1982-83, the NCAA adopted the 3-point line at 19 feet, 9 inches in 1986-87.

Assists records are available since 1969-70, turnovers are available since 1987-88, blocked shots and steals are available since 1977-78.

When noting career records, a player's career is listed from his first fall participation through the spring of his final season (for instance, Greivis Vasquez's first season was in 2006-07 and he graduated after playing in 2009-10... his listings in career statistics in this book will be shown as 2006-10).

Acknowledgements

Thanks to the men's basketball contacts at the University of Maryland for their yearly work on updating this book. We've added a few things, but the core of the publication comes from countless hours of updating and, hopefully, a relentless commitment to accuracy.

Special mention in particular to Justin Zawitoski for a semester of data entry, to John McNamara of the Annapolis Capital and Patrick Stevens, formerly of the Washington Times, for their attention to detail, corrections and suggestions, to Anne Turkos and the outstanding staff at University Archives for all the help. Some research was pulled from www.terrapinstats.com.

Any suggestions, changes, updates or corrections should be sent, with documentation, to Maryland Athletics Media Relations, 2731 Comcast Center, University of Maryland, College Park, MD 20740.

ALL-TIME RESULTS

Game-by-game results for every Maryland basketball season since 1910-11. Maryland was known as Maryland Agricultural College until 1915, and as Maryland State College from 1916-1919. Maryland's conference affiliations: Atlantic Coast Conference since 1953-54; and the Southern Conference from 1923-24 to 1952-53.

An all-college basketball team was formed in 1904-05, and played just two games. Due to a fire in 1912 which burnt the armory and college gymnasium, the team that was fielded in 1913-14 did not have a regular home, practiced only three times all season and lost 16 games. Another team was not fielded until 1918-19.

In 1918-19, Maryland State participated in the District Intercollegiate Basketball League, in which all games were played at the Washington YMCA. Another season would not be conducted until Maryland opened its new facility at The Gymnasium, inside Annapolis Hall, in 1923-24. It is considered to be the school's first "varsity" team.

Maryland and opponent Associated Press rankings are in brackets - AP polls began in 1948-49. From 1960-61 to 1967-68, the Associated Press ranked only the nation's top 10 teams.

For many years it was thought that because of the November 1912 fire that destroyed most of the Maryland Agricultural College campus, there was no basketball season in 1912-13. In 2011, Maryland Archives realized this was not the case and uncovered the 1912-13 season.

No. 1 Terps!

Maryland has been ranked No. 2 a total of 37 times between the AP and Coaches Polls, but achieved its first and only No. 1 ranking in history on April 2, 2002 – one day after defeating Indiana for the 2002 NCAA Championship. The final AP poll was released prior to the NCAA Tournament, thus the No. 1 ranking by USA Today/ESPN remains the only poll in which Maryland has ever been ranked No. 1. The Terrapins' four losses in 2002 (Oklahoma, Duke, Arizona, NC State) were all on the road to teams ranked in the USA Today/ESPN final Top 25.
