The No. 2 Maryland men's lacrosse team (9-2, 3-0) looks to clinch at least a share of its third consecutive Big Ten regular season title Saturday, April 22, when it faces No. 7 Ohio State (11-2, 2-1) in Columbus, Ohio. The game will be televised on ESPNews.

FACING OFF

3 Maryland's triple overtime win against Rutgers capped off its third victory against a top-11 team in a span of nine days last week. The span included a pair of road wins at Albany and Rutgers and a win over then-No. 1 Penn State. It was the first time the Terps had beaten three teams ranked in the top-11 in regular season action since 1989 (28 years).

3 With a win Saturday, Maryland can clinch at least a share of its third straight Big Ten regular season championship. It shared the title with JHU in 2015 and won it outright in 2016.

6 The Terps are 6-0 all-time on the road in Big Ten regular season action since the league's inception in 2015, including a thrilling 10-9 overtime win at Ohio State two years ago. Maryland's eight-game win streak in conference play is the longest conference streak in the country, and it has won 11 straight overall including postseason play.

7 Saturday's meeting is the seventh in history between Maryland and Ohio State, with the Terps holding a 6-1 all-time advantage dating back to 1990. Maryland had a dramatic 10-9 overtime victory in its last trip to Columbus, scoring four goals in the final 4:30 to force the extra frame.

13 The Terrapin offense is currently averaging 13.5 goals this season, which is on pace to be the most in a season for Maryland in the 21st century (last: 1998). Maryland has scored at least 10 goals in 20 of their last 21 games, and at least 12 goals in 15 of their last 16 games dating back to 2016.

15 The Terrapins need one more win to clinch their 15th straight 10-win season to further extend their NCAA-long streak which began in 2003. In terms of history, only Syracuse's 17-year 10-win streak (1988-2004) is longer all-time.

22 Maryland features a wealth of scoring options offensively, serving as the only team in the country with six players totaling at least 22 points. All six players have also scored at least 15 goals in 2017.

28 Junior goalkeeper Dan Morris earned numerous National Player of the Week plaudits after totaling 28 saves in wins at Albany and Rutgers. He made 12 saves and held Albany five goals below its season average, before tallying a career-high 16 saves at Rutgers (five in OT periods).

51 Senior attackman Matt Rambo has totaled 51 points (27g, 24a) in 11 games, and currently leads the Big Ten in points (4.7/g) and assists (2.2/g). By comparison, Rambo had 32 points (22G, 10a) through 11 games last season, before going on to total 75 points. He needs 11 points to break Maryland's all-time points record and 14 goals for the scoring record.

187 Maryland has one of the most seasoned & prolific attack lines in the country, with seniors Matt Rambo (67), Colin Heacock (65) and Dylan Maltz (55) combining for 187 career appearances. The unit's combined 286 goals and 416 points both ranks second nationally among attack trios (Duke).

GAME NOTES

COACHING MATCHUP

- John Tillman is in his 10th season as a head coach, and seventh with the Terps, with a 109-47 career record for a .699 winning percentage. Tillman is 89-28 (.761) as Maryland's head coach. He has had immense success since taking over the program in 2011, advancing to five NCAA semifinals and four title games. The Terps also lead the nation during that time period in All-America selections (38) and Major League Lacrosse draft selections (26).
- Ohio State's Nick Myers is in his ninth season as head coach.

- Maryland had a memorable win in its last trip to Columbus, defeating Ohio State, 10-9, in overtime at Ohio Stadium. Trailing, 9-5, with 4:22 remaining, the Terps rallied off four straight goals to send the game to overtime, before Jay Carlson scored the game-winner. The game was played in front of more than 40,000 fans prior to Ohio State's spring football game..

TERPS' 92ND SEASON OF LACROSSE

- The Terps boast an all-time record of 801-266-4 (.749), dating back to the first varsity team in 1924 (a team was not fielded in 1944 and 1945 due to World War II). Maryland has finished with a .500 or better record in all 91 seasons of existence, including last season when the Terps went 17-3.
- During the decade of the 2000s, Maryland went 111-49 for a .694 win percentage, making it the winningest decade in Terrapin lacrosse history. In the decade of the 1990s, Maryland posted a 95-47 record. The .669 winning percentage matched Maryland's win percentage of the 1980s when the Terps went 83-41 and also compiled a .669 win percentage.
- Through 2016, Maryland is 92-30 in the 2010's for a .754 winning percentage - on pace for the best decade in Maryland history.

THE 800 CLUB

- Maryland became just the third team in Division I history to reach 800 all-time victories with its 12-11 victory over Albany on April 12, 2017. The Terps joined Johns Hopkins and Syracuse as the only other program's to reach the milestone.
- The Terps reached 800 wins in just 1,070 games for a winning percentage of .750 since their inception as a varsity program in 1924. Maryland has never had a losing season in 92 years.

JOHN TILLMAN

HEAD COACH • SEVENTH SEASON AT MARYLAND • CORNELL '91

Tillman has experienced immense success since taking the reins in College Park, leading the Terps to five NCAA Final Fours and four championship game appearances in six seasons. He has garnered an 80-26 (.755) overall record at Maryland - the most wins ever by a Maryland coach through their first six seasons. The Maryland defense has ranked in the nation's top-10 in scoring defense all six seasons of his tenure.

Maryland has won 32 games over the last two seasons - the most in the nation over that span. Additionally, Tillman has won 14 NCAA Tournament games since 2011 - also an NCAA-best.

Tillman's players have been lauded with accolades since 2011, as he has developed 38 All-Americans (most nationally during span) and produced 26 Major League Lacrosse draft selections. In 2016, the Terps had six players selected in the first 19 picks - a Major League Lacrosse record.

Additionally, the program's accomplishments have translated to the classroom, as Tillman has had 12 USILA Scholar All-Americans in six seasons. The 2015 spring semester and 2016 fall semester combined for the program's highest GPA in more than 10 years.

The Terrapins won a program record 17 games in addition to piecing together a single-season record 16 consecutive wins in 2016 as they returned to the National Championship game, where they lost an overtime heartbreaker to UNC. Tillman's team swept the Big Ten regular season and tournament titles, while compiling the NCAA's top-ranked RPI. Eight players earned USILA All-America honors and Matt Dunn was named a Senior CLASS Award First Team All-American.

Maryland had another phenomenal season in 2015 when Tillman led the team to a Terrapin single-season record 15 victories and a berth in the NCAA national title game. The Terps featured the top-ranked scoring defense (7.1 goals allowed/g), as junior Kyle Bernlohr claimed the Ensign C. Markland Kelly, Jr. Award. Additionally, five players earned USILA All-America honors and Casey Ikeda was also a USILA Scholar All-American.

Tillman captured his first career ACC Coach of the Year honor by leading the Terps to the 2014 ACC regular season championship and the program's third Final Four appearance in four seasons. Senior Niko Amato earned the Ensign C. Markland Kelly, Jr. Award as the nation's most outstanding goalie, as five Maryland players earned USILA All-America honors.

Tillman's third season in College Park saw the Terps ascend to the top of the national rankings for the first time since 2006, following a 12-10 win at then-No. 1 Loyola on Feb. 21. Maryland earned a bid to the NCAA tournament for the 11th consecutive season, which is the longest active streak in Division I men's lacrosse. Seniors Jesse Bernhardt and John Haus became the first Terrapins since 2006 to earn first-team All-America honors, leading a group of seven Maryland honorees.

The 2012 season was viewed by many as a rebuilding year after Maryland graduated 17 seniors in 2011, but Tillman rallied the team and the Terrapins returned to the NCAA championship game with sensational postseason performances from seniors Joe Cummings and Drew Snider among others. Five Terps earned All-America honors following Maryland's 12-6 campaign and junior Jesse Bernhardt was selected as co-recipient of the ACC's first-ever Defensive Player of the Year award.

In his first season in College Park Tillman guided the Terps to a 13-5 record, the 2011 ACC championship (the program's first since 2005) and a berth in the NCAA championship game (the first for the Terps since 1998). Eight Terrapins earned All-America honors in Tillman's first season, which is the most Maryland players selected in a single-season since 2004.

Widely considered one of the top coaches in the country and a dynamic recruiter, Tillman was the head men's lacrosse coach at Harvard for three seasons prior to his arrival in College Park. His last recruiting class for the Crimson was rated No. 3 in the nation, according to Inside Lacrosse.

During his three seasons at Harvard, Tillman compiled an overall record of 20-19, including an 8-5 mark in 2009, which was the Crimson's highest win total since 1999.

Tillman's time at Harvard produced a number of the most memorable wins in the program's history. This past season, during which Harvard climbed as high as No. 11 in the national polls, Tillman guided the Crimson to an 11-8 victory over No. 6 Princeton, which was the first time Harvard had defeated the Tigers in 20 years. In 2009, Tillman led the Crimson to a season-opening 9-6 upset victory at No. 5 Duke.

Tillman improved his teams in every aspect over the past three seasons. Prior to his arrival in Cambridge, Mass., the Crimson ranked 40th and 42nd, respectively, in total offense and defense. Tillman's defense ranked as high as No. 3 in the nation, while his offense rose to No. 15 in the country. He also dramatically improved Harvard's extra-man offense, from the 51st-ranked unit before he arrived, to a perennial top 15 unit.

Prior to Harvard, Tillman spent 12 seasons at the U.S. Naval Academy in Annapolis, Md. After six seasons as an assistant coach, he was promoted to head assistant coach and offensive coordinator prior to the 2002 season. From 2004 through 2007, Tillman helped lead the Midshipmen to some of the most successful seasons in program history, including four straight NCAA tournament berths, four consecutive Patriot League tournament titles and four straight Patriot League regular season championships.

In 2004, with Tillman at the helm of the Navy offense, the Mids made a remarkable run through the NCAA tournament, defeating three Ivy League teams (Penn, Cornell and Princeton) en route to a spot in the national championship game. Tillman's offense was a key component of Navy's success that season, ranking third in the nation in scoring offense. Following the Mids' tremendous 2004 season, Tillman was awarded the first of his two Collegiate Lacrosse Assistant Coach of the Year Awards by the Maryland State Lacrosse Coaches Association.

During his 12 season at the Naval Academy, Tillman was responsible for helping develop first team All-America midfielders Graham Gill and Billy Looney and second team All-America attackman Jon Birsner. In his 12 seasons in Annapolis, the Mids compiled an overall record of 104-63.

Tillman started his coaching career as an assistant coach at Ithaca College. He spent four seasons (1992-95) with the Bombers, helping lead them to the Division III national semifinals in 1992.

In addition to his extensive coaching experience, Tillman also serves as a member of the Tewaaraton Award Men's Selection Committee.

A 1991 graduate of Cornell University's School of Hotel Administration, Tillman was a three-year member of the school's Dean's list. He had the opportunity to play for legendary coach Richie Moran and was a member of the 1989 squad that earned a berth in the NCAA tournament.

Tillman was a goalie when he entered college, but played a number of positions for the Big Red, giving him a great appreciation and understanding for the overall game of lacrosse.

Tillman played professionally for the Baltimore Thunder and the Washington Power of the National Lacrosse League. During his final two seasons in Baltimore, he helped the Thunder reach the NLL Championship and Semifinals. Tillman also played for the Toyota Lacrosse Club, who won five-consecutive Southern Division Championships, including a world championship in 2000.

A native of Corning, N.Y., Tillman was previously commissioned into the U.S. Navy as a fleet support officer and was awarded the Navy Achievement Medal.
