FACING OFF

2 The No. 2 Maryland men's lacrosse team is set to meet Marist for just the second time in program history when it welcomes the Red Foxes for a mid-week contest Tuesday, Feb. 13, at 5 pm at Capital One Field at Maryland Stadium. The Terps won the lone previous meeting, 17-4, on March 10, 2012, as freshman Jay Carlson scored four goals.

3 In addition to scoring one goal, senior midfielder Connor Kelly tallied three assists in the season-opening win against Navy. The three dishes matched a career-high for Kelly, who had only 11 assists in 2017 despite posting 57 points.

3 Freshman Bubba Fairman was sensational in his collegiate debut, scoring three goals on five shots. Fairman, who was rated the No. 2 overall recruit in the 2017 class by Inside Lacrosse, is the first Maryland player to score three goals in a collegiate debut since Matt Rambo had four in 2014.

4 The Terps allowed just four goals in a rainy defeat of Navy to open the 2018 season on Feb. 10. It was an excellent defensive effort from Maryland, which won its ninth consecutive game against the Mids. Senior goalkeeper Dan Morris made 11 saves in the effort, while Michael Adler caused a pair of turnovers.

5 The Terps rolled out many new faces against Navy, including five players in their official starting lineup who made their first career collegiate start. The five players included senior Michael Adler, sophomore Jack Welding, redshirt freshmen Anthony DeMaio and Logan Wisnaukas and freshman Bubba Fairman.

6 Maryland returns six All-Americans in 2018, including IMLCA First Team All-American midfielder Connor Kelly. The other returning All-Americans are sophomore A/M Jared Bernhardt, senior goalkeeper Dan Morris, senior long stick midfielder Matt Neufeldt, senior midfielder Tim Rotanz and senior defender Bryce Young. All six players earned preseason All-America honors from Inside Lacrosse.

9 Maryland head coach John Tillman has pieced together another challenging slate for the Terps, which includes matchups against nine teams in the IMLCA Coaches Poll. The Terps have routinely played the top schedule in the country, posting the No. 1 overall RPI back-to-back seasons.

10 The Terrapins have been very efficient in mid-week games, winning 10 straight since 2012. Overall, Maryland is 11-1 in mid-week action since John Tillman took over the program in 2011. The lone loss during the span came in an 8-7 defeat to UMBC on March 6, 2012.

GAME NOTES

COACHING MATCHUP

- John Tillman is in 11th season as a head coach, and eighth with the Terps, with a 117-48 career record for a .709 winning percentage. Tillman is 97-29 (.770) as Maryland's head coach. Tillman is 1-0 against Marist in his coaching career.
- Marist's Keegan Wilkinson is in his seventh season at the helm.

SERIES HISTORY VS. MARIST

- Maryland and Marist have met just one time in the past - a 17-4 victory for the Terps on March 10, 2012 in College Park.
- Freshman Jay Carlson scored four goals in the game, while Joe Cummings tallied three goals and an assist. Goalkeeper Niko Amato made 13 saves and allowed just two goals in 52:47 of action.
- The Terps are 3-0 against current MAAC teams since John Tillman took over the program in 2011. The wins were against Detroit (2011), Marist (2012) and Quinnipiac (2016).

TERPS WIN 25TH STRAIGHT SEASON-OPENER

- Maryland opened its 93rd season of lacrosse with a 10-4 defeat of Navy on Feb. 10. The Terps improved to 89-3-1 all-time in season-openers, which includes 25 consecutive wins.
- The win also marked the Terps' ninth straight victory over the Mids, as John Tillman improved to 8-0 against Navy.
- Senior midfielders Tim Rotanz and Connor Kelly each picked up where they left off in 2017, tallying four points each. Senior goalkeeper Dan Morris tallied 11 saves and allowed just four goals in a strong defensive effort.
- Freshman Bubba Fairman was sensational in his collegiate debuting, scoring three goals. It was the most goals by a Maryland freshman in a collegiate debut since Matt Rambo had four goals in 2014.

MARYLAND'S ILLUSTRIOUS SENIOR CLASS

- The current Maryland senior class is one of the most successful in the history of the program, advancing to the NCAA finals all three seasons and winning the NCAA Championship in 2017.
- The senior class enters the 2018 season with a 48-10 overall record. The next closest schools (Denver and Albany) began the season with 43 wins during that span.
- The Terrapin seniors will need 14 wins to break the program senior class record for wins (61), which was set by the class of 2017. It is a record that has been broken three consecutive seasons.

GET TO 10 AND WIN

- Since John Tillman took over the program in 2011, Maryland has won 80 of the 87 games in which it has scored 10 or more goals for a .920 winning percentage.
- Maryland is also 61-4 in the last five seasons when scoring at least 10 goals.

HOLDING OPPONENTS TO SINGLE-DIGITS

- Maryland is 81-11 since Tillman took over the program in 2011 when it allows nine goals or less, for an .880 winning percentage.
- The Terps are 49-5 over the last five seasons when allowing less than 10 goals.

CONSECUTIVE 10-WIN SEASONS

- Maryland's 12-5 win over 8th-ranked Johns Hopkins on April 29, 2017 extended the Terps' streak of double-digit win seasons to 15, which is the longest active streak in NCAA Division I men's lacrosse.
- There are only two programs with a current streak of at least 10-straight 10-win seasons, after Notre Dame's streak was snapped last season at 11.
 - Maryland (15): 2017 (16-3), 2016 (17-3), 2015 (15-4), 2014 (13-4), 2013 (10-4), 2012 (12-6), 2011 (13-5), 2010 (12-4), 2009 (10-7), 2008 (10-6), 2007 (10-6), 2006 (12-5), 2005 (11-6), 2004 (13-3), 2003 (12-4)
 - Duke (12): 2017 (13-5), 2016 (11-8), 2015 (11-5), 2014 (17-3), 2013 (16-5), 2012 (15-5), 2011 (14-6), 2010 (16-4), 2009 (15-4), 2008 (18-2), 2007 (17-3)

TERPS' 93RD SEASON OF LACROSSE

- The Terps boast an all-time record of 808-267-4 (.751), dating back to the first varsity team in 1924 (a team was not fielded in 1944 and 1945 due to World War II). Maryland has finished with a .500 or better record in all 92 seasons of existence, including last season when the Terps went 16-3. The program reached the 800-win milestone with a thrilling 12-6 victory on April 12, 2017 on the road against Albany.
- During the decade of the 2000s, Maryland went 111-49 for a .694 win percentage, making it the winningest decade in Terrapin lacrosse history. In the decade of the 1990s, Maryland posted a 95-47 record. The .669 winning percentage matched Maryland's win percentage of the 1980s when the Terps went 83-41 and also compiled a .669 win percentage.
- So far, Maryland is 108-34 in the 2010's for a .761 winning percentage - on pace for the best decade in Maryland history.

JOHN TILLMAN

HEAD COACH • EIGHTH SEASON AT MARYLAND • CORNELL '91

Blending a mix of the program's historic motto, "Be The Best," with his own principles of high character in all aspects of life, John Tillman has created a formula that has resulted in one of the most successful eras in Maryland lacrosse's illustrious history.

Tillman's formula came to ultimate fruition in 2017 when Maryland captured its first NCAA National Championship since 1975. Since taking over the helm as Maryland head coach seven years ago, Tillman has led the Terps to six NCAA Final Fours, five national title games and a 96-29 (.768) overall record.

Tillman's numbers since arriving in College Park in 2011 are impressive, leading the country in All-American selections (47), Major League Lacrosse draft selections (31), NCAA Tournament wins (18) and Final Fours (6) during that seven-year span.

Additionally, the program's accomplishments have translated to the classroom, as Tillman has had 12 USILA Scholar All-Americans in six seasons. The 2015 spring semester and 2016 fall semester combined for the program's highest GPA in more than 10 years.

Maryland went 16-3 and captured the Big Ten regular season and tournament titles en route to capturing the 2017 National Championship. Tillman coached Matt Rambo, who set team records for points (257) and goals (155) en route to capturing the program's first-ever Tewaaraton Award, and Tim Muller, who earned the Schmeisser Award for being the nation's top defender. The Terps had a nation's-best nine USILA All-America selections, while Isaiah Davis-Allen became just the second student-athlete in Maryland history to receive the Senior CLASS Award.

The Terrapins won a program record 17 games in addition to piecing together a single-season record 16 consecutive wins in 2016 as they returned to the National Championship game, where they lost an overtime heartbreaker to UNC. Tillman's team swept the Big Ten regular season and tournament titles, while compiling the NCAA's top-ranked RPI. Eight players earned USILA All-America honors and Matt Dunn was named a Senior CLASS Award First Team All-American.

Maryland had another phenomenal season in 2015 when Tillman led the team to a Terrapin single-season record 15 victories and a berth in the NCAA national title game. The Terps featured the top-ranked scoring defense (7.1 goals allowed/g), as junior Kyle Bernlohr claimed the Ensign C. Markland Kelly, Jr. Award. Additionally, five players earned USILA All-America honors and Casey Ikeda was also a USILA Scholar All-American.

Tillman captured his first career ACC Coach of the Year honor by leading the Terps to the 2014 ACC regular season championship and the program's third Final Four appearance in four seasons. Senior Niko Amato earned the Ensign C. Markland Kelly, Jr. Award as the nation's most outstanding goalie, as five Maryland players earned USILA All-America honors.

Tillman's third season in College Park saw the Terps ascend to the top of the national rankings for the first time since 2006, following a 12-10 win at then-No. 1 Loyola on Feb. 21. Maryland earned a bid to the NCAA tournament for the 11th consecutive season, which is the longest active streak in Division I men's lacrosse. Seniors Jesse Bernhardt and John Haus became the first Terrapins since 2006 to earn first-team All-America honors, leading a group of seven Maryland honorees.

The 2012 season was viewed by many as a rebuilding year after Maryland graduated 17 seniors in 2011, but Tillman rallied the team and the Terrapins returned to the NCAA championship game with sensational postseason performances from seniors Joe Cummings and Drew Snider among others. Five Terps earned All-America honors following Maryland's 12-6 campaign and junior Jesse Bernhardt was selected as co-recipient of the ACC's first-ever Defensive Player of the Year award.

In his first season in College Park Tillman guided the Terps to a 13-5 record, the 2011 ACC championship (the program's first since 2005) and a berth in the NCAA championship game (the first for the Terps since 1998). Eight Terrapins earned All-America honors in Tillman's first season, which is the most Maryland players selected in a single-season since 2004.

Widely considered one of the top coaches in the country and a dynamic recruiter, Tillman was the head men's lacrosse coach at Harvard for three seasons prior to his arrival in College Park. His last recruiting class for the Crimson was rated No. 3 in the nation, according to Inside Lacrosse.

During his three seasons at Harvard, Tillman compiled an overall record of 20-19, including an 8-5 mark in 2009, which was the Crimson's highest win total since 1999.

Tillman's time at Harvard produced a number of the most memorable wins in the program's history. This past season, during which Harvard climbed as high as No. 11 in the national polls, Tillman guided the Crimson to an 11-8 victory over No. 6 Princeton, which was the first time Harvard had defeated the Tigers in 20 years. In 2009, Tillman led the Crimson to a season-opening 9-6 upset victory at No. 5 Duke.

Tillman improved his teams in every aspect over the past three seasons. Prior to his arrival in Cambridge, Mass., the Crimson ranked 40th and 42nd, respectively, in total offense and defense. Tillman's defense ranked as high as No. 3 in the nation, while his offense rose to No. 15 in the country. He also dramatically improved Harvard's extra-man offense, from the 51st-ranked unit before he arrived, to a perennial top 15 unit.

Prior to Harvard, Tillman spent 12 seasons at the U.S. Naval Academy in Annapolis, Md. After six seasons as an assistant coach, he was promoted to head assistant coach and offensive coordinator prior to the 2002 season. From 2004 through 2007, Tillman helped lead the Midshipmen to some of the most successful seasons in program history, including four straight NCAA tournament berths, four consecutive Patriot League tournament titles and four straight Patriot League regular season championships.

Tillman's third-ranked scoring offense in 2004 helped lead Navy to the NCAA Championship game. Following the season, Tillman was awarded the first of his two Collegiate Lacrosse Assistant Coach of the Year Awards by the Maryland State Lacrosse Coaches Association.

During his 12 season at the Naval Academy, Tillman was responsible for helping develop first team All-America midfielders Graham Gill and Billy Looney and second team All-America attackman Jon Birsner. In his 12 seasons in Annapolis, the Mids compiled an overall record of 104-63.

Tillman started his coaching career as an assistant coach at Ithaca College. He spent four seasons (1992-95) with the Bombers, helping lead them to the Division III national semifinals in 1992.

In addition to his extensive coaching experience, Tillman also serves as a member of the Tewaaraton Award Men's Selection Committee.

A 1991 graduate of Cornell University's School of Hotel Administration, Tillman was a three-year member of the school's Dean's list. He had the opportunity to play for legendary coach Richie Moran and was a member of the 1989 squad that earned a berth in the NCAA tournament.

Tillman was a goalie when he entered college, but played a number of positions for the Big Red, giving him a great appreciation and understanding for the overall game of lacrosse.

Tillman played professionally for the Baltimore Thunder and the Washington Power of the National Lacrosse League. During his final two seasons in Baltimore, he helped the Thunder reach the NLL Championship and Semifinals. Tillman also played for the Toyota Lacrosse Club, who won five consecutive Southern Division Championships, including a world championship in 2000.

A native of Corning, N.Y., Tillman was previously commissioned into the U.S. Navy as a fleet support officer and was awarded the Navy Achievement Medal.

1-Pacific Coast Shootout at Costa Mesa, Calif.

Numbers in parenthesis represent USILA rankings at the time of the game, dating back to the beginning of the NCAA era in 1973. Preseason polls are used for start of the season when available - in some seasons, rankings were not released until the middle of the season.

Special thanks to Doyle Smith and Michael Colley from Virginia and Ernie Larossa from Johns Hopkins for supplying ranking info.
